

Press Release

GET GROOVING THIS SPRING, WITH 20SOMETHING SUNDAY 11 SEPTEMBER @ 1.30PM

Spring is here and 20something promises to get your feet tapping, learning a thing or two and definitely singing... As usual Namhla Ndlovu and Khethiwe Kunene are your hosts every Sunday @ 1.30pm - free on e.

Going back to their roots... This week the musical trio Shana are on the fun couch. They chat about why they chose to do more traditional sounds taking their influence from none other than the great Ladysmith Black Mambazo, while most of their counterparts are choosing to go the commercial route doing Hip-Hop, Kwaito or R&B.

Tapping into the tune of dogs... We also take a look at the latest dance extravaganza to hit our shores aptly entitled Tap Dogs. This highly energetic production returns to South Africa due to popular demand after a sold out whirlwind tour. They are taking the world by storm with their unprecedented tap show that combines the strength and power of male workmen with the precision and talent of tap dancing.

The movie preview of the week is "Red Eye", directed by Wes Craven and starring Rachel Mc Adams and Cillian Murphy. Moments after takeoff, Lisa's seatmate, Jackson, menacingly reveals the real reason he's on board: He is an operative in a plot to kill a rich and powerful businessman... and Lisa is the key to its success. If she refuses to cooperate, an assassin awaiting a call from Jackson will kill her own father. Trapped within the confines of a jet at 30,000 feet above the ground, Lisa has nowhere to run and no way to summon help without endangering her father, her fellow passengers and her own life.

The music video of the week comes from Finnish band The Rasmus with 'In the Shadows'.
