

PRESS RELEASE

That Sport Show

And Up For Discussion this Monday May 30 @ 7.30pm...

This week we are going mad about local football - with a look at the Bafana Bafana side taking on Cape Verde. We discuss the finals of the ABSA Cup and we look back at the big winners and losers from the 2004-2005 PSL season. These are the week's hot topics up for argument - and a bit of rational banter - on the most controversial (and live!) sports show ever to be screened on South African TV.

Every week, the sharp, knowledgeable and extremely forthright, Udo Carelse, hosts the show with his usual quirky humour and impressive expertise, provoking the viewer and studio guests into off-the-cuff opinions on current and highly contentious sports issues.

First we take an in depth look at the players we feel should be in the Bafana Bafana side for the World Cup qualifier. We discuss the tactics we feel they should be implementing and we look down the road at who we will be facing next.

And finally we look back on an absorbing year from the PSL. We debate how Pirates could have let an apparently unassailable lead slip from their grasp and we discuss those teams that have been relegated and look at the ones that are on their way up.

Never offside, never taking a dive and always ready for a brawl, That Sport Show. Every Monday @ 7.30pm, only on e.
