

PRESS RELEASE

That Sport Show

And Up For Discussion this Monday 06 June @ 9.30pm...

This week we take a look at the Bafana Bafana match against the Cape Verde Islands. Chiefs Coach Ted Dumitru takes us down memory lane and Layla Ali is coming to box in South Africa. These are the week's hot topics up for argument - and a bit of rational banter - on the most controversial (and live!) sports show ever to be screened on South African TV.

Every week, the sharp, knowledgeable and extremely forthright, Udo Carelse, hosts the show with his usual quirky humour and impressive expertise, provoking the viewer and studio guests into off-the-cuff opinions on current and highly contentious sports issues.

First we take an in depth look at the players we feel should be in the Bafana Bafana side for the World Cup qualifier against the Cape Verde Islands. We discuss the tactics we feel they should be implementing and we look down the road at who we will be facing next.

Chiefs Coach Ted Dumitru takes us on a 25-year journey spent coaching soccer all over the world. We discuss how he will be able to leave football and what his plans are for the future. Finally we look at the upcoming arrival of the great Mohammed Ali's daughter. She will be fighting in the country later in the year.

Never offside, never taking a dive and always ready for a brawl, That Sport Show. Every Monday @ 9.30pm, only on e.
