

PRESS RELEASE

The Rough Cut: Wednesday 8 June @ 9.35pm

The Rough Cut is e.tv's popular internally produced current affairs series, where a news reporter from the station produces a mini-documentary on the behind the scenes footage, dramas and emotions involved in one of their high-profile stories.

This week's episode - America has the Michael Jackson trial and South Africa has Shabir Shaik, the flamboyant former financial advisor of South Africa's Deputy President, Jacob Zuma. Join eNews reporter McIntosh Nzimande in this week's Rough Cut, for all the drama and controversy around one of South Africa's most sensational court cases. Real stories with real people behind them.
