The Rough Cut: Wednesday 25 May @ 7.30pm

The Rough Cut is e.tv's hot and happening current affairs programme where one of their news reporters produces a mini-documentary on the behind the scenes footage, dramas and emotions involved in one of their high-profile stories.

This week's episode – Tragedy and death often make the headlines and journalists become the bearers of bad news. Nokwazi Tshabalala looks at the challenges she and her colleagues face when covering the sadder, grimmer stories. Grieving families, false hope and gruesome facts. Do these issues ever get easier to deal with? Find out on The Rough Cut on Wednesdays only on e.
