

Press Release

That Sport Show

And Up For Debate this Monday September 19 @ 9.30pm...

These are Monday's hot topics to be discussed live on e.tv's newest and most contentious sports show:

- Springbok super kid Brian Habana is in studio along with Danna Cooper the CEO of South Africa A1 Grand Prix team.
- The best of the English Premiership, winners of the SAA Supa 8 and the very latest in the Bafana Bafana downward spiral.

Every week, the already forthright and in-your-face host of "That Sport Show", Udo Carelse, coaxes new insights and fresh controversies from his studio guests as he commands the studio with his off beat commentary and quirky humour.

This week: we interview the new wunderkind of SA rugby Brian Habana. We ask him how he is dealing with the newfound celebrity and how hard it was to lose to the All Blacks.

Dana Cooper is in the studio; we look at and get the low down on the new kid on the racing front. How competitive will South Africa be and what can we expect from the new racing discipline.

And finally a bumper edition from the football world as we look at the winners and losers from the English Premiership and the SAA Supa 8. While we get down and dirty about the state of the national football team. What is going wrong, who is really to blame and how can we fix the rot.

Never offside, never taking a dive and always ready for a brawl, That Sport Show. Every Monday @ 7.30pm, only on e.
